

Josh is talking about the weather where he lives. Complete the sentences with the correct form of each word. Compare your answers with a partner.
Is the weather similar where you live?

In December and January, many mornings are _____.
(fog)

Most of our _____ falls in February. In fact, it's (snow)

_____ here right now!
(snow)

Spring is usually cool and wet. When it's _____ (rain)

like this for days and days, I feel depressed.

I look forward to summer. The days are hot and _____, while the nights are cool and _____.
(sun)

(breeze)

The weather changes almost every day. Strong _____ (wind)

can bring a lot of _____.
(rain)

Partly _____ days are common.
(cloud)

