Ex. re- → means "again" / review, renew, reheat

pre- → means "before" / preview, prewriting, prehistoric un- → means "not" / uninjured, unavoidable, unsafe

Pre-Reading

3 Look at the following emergencies. What should you do in these emergencies?

4 Read the safety tips. 6-02

What to Do in Case of a Fire

1. In a building with fire alarms, pull the alarm. Then find the exit and leave the building.
2. Be careful. Feel doors for heat before opening them. Pay attention; there might be a fire on the other side.
3. Stay low and avoid smoke. Smoke rises and will hurt you.
4. Watch for falling objects.
5. Once you're free from danger, call for help. Report your emergency to your local emergency service centre.
6. Wait for help. Do not go back into the building.

What to Do if You're Stuck

1. Stay where you are.
2. Close the door.
3. Use a wet blanket or sheet to cover the bottom of the door.
4. Open any windows in the room to let out smoke.
5. Get the attention of emergency personnel.

NOTE

Personnel are people who work for a specific organisation.

Comprehension

5 Circle true or false.

1. If there's a fire, you should stay inside.
2. If there's a fire, you should exit the building only if it's safe.
3. You should go back into the building to pull the alarm.
4. You should not open doors that are hot.
5. You should use a wet blanket to cover the tops of doors.
