Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

PETER MARKS : PRESS OFFICER

PETER MARKS is the press officer for a top football club. If a television or newspaper journalist wants to know anything about the club, Peter gives them the information.

“At the age of 10 I wanted to play football for England! But I studied science at university, and then got a job on a daily newspaper, writing about business and sport. I’ve worked for this club for eight years. When I started, only one other football club had a press officer - now almost every club has one.

The job has changed a lot. At the beginning I just gave information to a few local and national newspapers. Today my phone never stops ringing! Magazines, TV companies and radio stations from all over the world want interviews with our players and manager. Often, journalists or photographers ask to meet a player here. That’s why my office is next to the dub changing room - it’s easy for me to find players when they’ve finished practising.

Newspapers sometimes say things about football clubs that are wrong, so I teach all our players how to answer difficult questions. Then I’m happy to let them speak to journalists without me.’

Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

My sister enjoys watching movies a lot. She spends most of her free time watching films on TV or going out with friends to the cinema.

They usually go to the "Seef Cinema". It's in Manama, near the sea. The cinema is a part of the 'Seef Mall'; which is a big beautiful building with car parks all around it. There are two cinemas in the mall. Both of them has 16 halls, showing different films each. There are also some restaurants near the cinema where you can sit and enjoy a good snack. My sister loves going there because it's smaller and quiter than the 'City Centre Cinema'.

She always goes to the cinema on weekdays. She says: it's better. Not much people visit malls from Sunday to Wednesday because they are busy with schools or at work.

Every week, my sister takes my dad's car, picks up her friends and they go to the cinema together. They try to go earlier than the time in which the film starts so that they can do some shopping first or buy drinks and popcorn for the cinema.

Read the following passage and answer the questions below.

George Weekes writes poems and books for all age groups, and sometimes reads his work on television.

'My parents moved to Manchester from Jamaica just before I was born, but east London has been my home for many years now. Tourists never come here. This part of the city has problems, but there are also many good things about it. People of many nationalities live in this area, so there are shops with Jamaican bread, African vegetables, Chinese spices and lots of other interesting things. The shop my wife likes best is one that sells beautiful Indian dresses. The local bookshop is much more friendly than a big store and I'm always happy to talk to the customers about my books!

I'm 36 now but I don't really like 36-year-olds! Once people become 30 they think about money too much and say that modern music is too noisy! Almost all my friends here are under 17. I love their language and their music. They give me ideas for my writing. Sometimes I go for a run along the river. There are flowers and animals and even some cows there, so it's like being in the country. I live and work in a city but inside I am still a country person.
