Chris

I think most people in the city are there because of work, so a lot of people are rushing, and they've got deadlines and appointments to meet. So they can come across as a bit rudier than perhaps people in the suburbs who have less pressure on them.

Emma

I live in the city. Where I live is kind of quiet, but it depends on the time of the day, and sometimes there is like a little restaurant in the area, and people tend to go there. Different cultures, hard - working people. It's a very nice community. It's very clean, which is kind of different from the city because the city's kind of messy, but they maintain it, and they keep it very nice. I enjoy living in the city because it's quick access to everything or you don't have to travel in a car or go down an hour or two to the mall

Natalie

I really enjoy living in the city because it's very busy, and there's always something to do. There are always bars to go, there are restaurants, there's plenty to do. The commute to work is very short - it only takes me about 20 minutes to get to work by public transportation. And, yeah, I really like it because there's lots of people with similar interests and very interesting people to speak to all the time.
