

DAILY ROUTINE

1.- Hello! please listen the audio and select the correct option.

Audio player interface for the first section. It consists of six rows, each containing a speaker icon followed by four small image options representing different daily activities.

2.- Listen drag and drop.
Listen carefully the times do you need and join the audio with the pictures use an arrows.

Audio player interface for the second section. It features a large central teal area for dragging and dropping. On the left, there are six speaker icons. On the right, there are six small image options representing different daily activities.

3.- Practice you listen and oral skills, make click in the record icons and record yourself.

Audio player interface for the third section. It consists of nine rows, each containing a speaker icon, a small image option, and a record icon (a microphone).

Well Done!!!