

Complete the following dialogues with the comparative or the superlative form of the adjectives between parentheses.

Rob and Ana are talking about TV commercials.

Rob: I hate commercials. One is 1. _____ (bad) the next.

Ana: I agree. I think perfume commercials are 2. _____ (bad).

Rob: Yeah. And how about those diaper commercials? Every four months they come up with a 3. _____ (good) and 4. _____ (dry) diaper with 5. _____ (new) features.

Ana: You're right. Companies like to say that they improved their old product, and now their new product is 6. _____ (good). But then, a year later, they have a 7. _____ (exciting) product.

Rob: I like the "Where's the beef?" commercial. It's one of 8. _____ (innovative) hamburger commercials of all time.

Ana: Yes, it is 9. _____ (funny) other burger commercials, too.

Rob: I'm hungry after all this hamburger talk. Let's go to "Luky's". They have 10. _____ (delicious) hamburgers in town.
