

Changing y to i

Add -s or -es to most singular nouns to form regular plural nouns.

If a noun ends with a consonant and y, change the y to i, and add -es to form the plural.

Singular:	library	pony
Plural:	libraries	ponies

Write the plural form of each singular noun in parentheses. Then write a new sentence using the plural form of the noun.

1. There is a bush with in our garden. (berry)

2. I have only visited two large so far. (city)

3. My mother always says that smell really good. (baby)

4. We have a jar in our house that is full of . (penny)

5. What kind of do we need to make this poster? (supply)

Revisit your piece of writing. Edit the draft to make sure all plural nouns are used correctly.