

Types of maps

Road

Political

Relief

- a. A map shows the borders of a country and its different regions. It uses a red dot for the capital city and black dots for the regional capitals.
- b. A map shows high land in brown and low land in green. It shows rivers as blue lines.
- c. A map shows the different types of roads in different colours. It can also show railway lines and airports.