The History of The First Thanksgiving Day

- Thanksgiving Day is celebrated in America on the first Thursday of November.

  True False

- On this day people gather for a day of feasting with family, friends, and relatives.

  True False

- This holiday has a long history which started in 1620.

  True False

- Pilgrims arrived in the New World on board the airplane called Mayflower.

  True False

- Their first winter in America was full of hardship and drama.

  True False

- The following spring the local tribe of Native Americans taught the pilgrims how to grow corn, hunt and fish.

  True False

- In the autumn of 1621 the pilgrims got a poor harvest of vegetables.

  True False

- The first Thanksgiving was a six-day feast.

  True False

- The pilgrims praised the Lord and thanked him for all the food and wealth he gave them.

  True False

- The family feast is an important modern Thanksgiving Day tradition. The entire family comes together, offers prayer to the Lord, and celebrates.

  True False

- The traditional full dress Thanksgiving parade is a way to display the country's military beauty.

  True False

- Thanksgiving is a time to decorate home with wreaths, fresh and dried flowers.

  True False

- Nowadays Thanksgiving is a day when people send Christmas wishes to their relatives and friends.

  True False

LIVEWORKSHEETS