

5

Relationships

Vocabulary

A

Relating to people

I can talk about relationships and describe behaviour.

1 Complete the sentences with the words below.

close common eye sorry wary wavelength

- I don't really understand Kevin or his jokes. We really aren't on the same _____.
- Sara feels _____ for me for failing my exam, but it was my own fault.
- We've got a lot in _____ with each other and we share quite a few interests.
- My mother doesn't see _____ to eye with me about my plans for the weekend.
- Although Jack has moved to London, we are still very _____ and are in contact every day.
- I'm a bit _____ of giving my email address to people online that I don't know.

2 Replace the underlined words with the correct form of the verbs below.

adore envy look down on look up to respect trust

- We should treat the environment carefully and not pollute it. _____
- Andy thinks very highly of his big brother Tom and wants to be just like him. _____
- Some of his friends are jealous of the success that he has had. _____
- My sister warned me not to have confidence in him. _____
- She's afraid they think they are better than her because she doesn't have a job. _____
- They have one son and they really love him. _____

3  1.25 Listen and choose the correct answer (a–c).

- The man in dialogue 1 suggests that he and Eva _____.
a are very close to each other b adore each other c have nothing in common with each other
- The woman in the second dialogue ____ her friend's family.
a looks down on b feels sorry for c adores
- The two people in dialogue 3 ____ the man they see.
a are wary of b are on the same wavelength as c respect
- How does the girl in dialogue 4 feel about her brother?
a She envies him. b She looks up to him.
c She despises him.
- The girl in dialogue 5 feels confident that her friend ____ Amy.
a can trust b admires c has a lot in common with
- What problem do the two speakers in dialogue 6 have with Jack?
a They have nothing in common with him.
b They don't see eye to eye with him.
c They are wary of him.

4 Complete the sentences with the prepositions below.

about (x3) for (x2) on

- I was complimented _____ my winning entry for the poetry competition by the head teacher.
- My dad is always being teased _____ his terrible cooking.
- We were warned _____ the dangers of cycling at night.
- Sam was told off _____ not taking his medicine.
- The whole class might be lectured _____ behaving well when in public places.
- We've all been praised _____ our performance in the play.

5 Match the verbs below with the situations.

flatter insult nag praise warn

- 'That's a fantastic piece of work, Lily. Well done!'
- 'I really like your new suit. You look great in it!'
- 'You are a complete idiot, aren't you?'
- 'Don't jump into the sea from the rocks. It's extremely dangerous!'
- 'Oh, please, please, please let me stay out late on Friday night. I promise that if you do, I'll ...'

6 Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs below.

compliment nag praise tease tell warn

Well, it's been a bit of a strange day. My mum ¹ _____ me off this morning for arriving home late last night, but then she ² _____ me for my good marks in the test! On the bus to school, my best mate Harry kept ³ _____ me about lending him my mountain bike. He went on and on about it for the whole journey! Once at school, everyone made jokes and ⁴ _____ me about my new haircut. Well, everyone except for Chloe! She ⁵ _____ me on my 'stylish' hair and said it looked great! But then I realised that I'd left my English homework at home. My English teacher ⁶ _____ me not to forget my homework again and gave me extra work as a punishment!