

Complete the text with the correct verb from the list.

means                      is paying                      considers                      is following flies                      earns                      is working                      speaks is expanding                      attends

Jane Houseman _____ herself a happy woman. Based in London, she works as a project manager for a software company which _____ rapidly.

Jane loves travelling, at the moment she _____ on a project in Japan which _____ she _____ out to Osaka about once a month. She already _____ fluent Japanese. Jane _____ an MBA course by correspondence and regularly _____ intensive weeks in London. Financially she is very lucky as she _____ twice as much as her friends from university. In addition her company _____ for her MBA studies.

Now complete the second text using the following verbs :

was            put            worked            invited            has received arrived       has been            has already worked            has never regretted has just asked            left            called

Jane _____ in her present job for 6 years. After she _____ university, she _____ as a management trainee for 4 years in an IT company ; she _____ the move to STW, since they immediately _____ her on their fast-track scheme for employees with the potential to become high-fliers. But today Jane faces a dilemma. In the last 3 weeks she _____ no less than three proposals. First, her boss suddenly announced his resignation. Jane _____ shocked and surprised, especially when, just a few days later, STW's HR Manager _____ to offer her the position. The second proposal _____ that same evening. Estelle, one of Jane's friends from the MBA course, who _____ for several multinationals, _____ her to become a partner in a new consultancy. Last, but by no means least, Jane's boyfriend, Howard _____ her to marry him. Not surprisingly, Jane has asked for more time to think about each of the proposals.

