

1. Decide which of the get collocations will fit in the gap. Use the right forms (sometimes you'll need to change the form)

- a) get a life b) get over c) get started d) get off
e) get excited f) get nowhere g) get permission h) get fired
i) get used to j) get the message k) get lost l) get going
m) get away n) get upset o) get the impression
p) get drunk r) get married

1. We might miss the plane - we'd better
2. My wife left me two years ago. I've never really
3. I'm starting to about my holiday. It is in two weeks' time.
4. We're never going to finish this on time - we really need to
5. Over an hour had passed by the time wethe plane. There was a problem with the doors.
6. I when I don't get the job I want because I have been preparing for that so hard.
7. I keep telling him I don't want to see him anymore but he doesn't seem to
8. My husband and I nearly five years ago.
9. I'm trying to achieve the score I need in IELTS but I seem to be
It is always the same score.
10. It was really difficult moving to live in another country but I'mit. I've made a few friends now.

11. Sorry I'm so late. I on the way.
12. I'm studying English because I from my job last month. I need to improve my skills.
13. I need to from my home town. There are no jobs there and no future for me.
14. I he doesn't like me - he talks to everyone else except me.
15. You have to if you want to leave the exam room.
16. Paul just sits at home all day watching TV. He has no friends and no job. He really needs to
17. I've finally got the job I've dreamt of- let's go and

2. Put the right phrasal verbs with GET in the right forms (correct tense)

get along get by get on get over get across get through get away

1. Brad and Tom really don't _____ with each other. They're always arguing.
2. Sara won't be joining us. She's still _____ the flu.
3. If Mel thinks she's going to _____ with being late again, she's terribly mistaken!
4. Some poor families manage to _____ on just £10 a day.
5. He didn't _____ with his boss and finally decided to leave the company rather than stay there working for him.

6. I can't _____ to Tom on this phone - there's no signal in this building.
7. You need to _____ to your wife how terrible life would be without her. Maybe then, she will change her mind about the divorce.