

C2

ON SCREEN C2 MODULE 2 THE FUTURE

GRAMMAR EXERCISES

① TICK THE BEST OPTION FROM THE UNDERLINED TENSES.

1. I won't 'm not going to tell anyone your secret, I promise.
2. Don't call me at 6 because I 'm going to drive 'll be driving home from school.
3. I know I 'll have written I'll be writing a book before I'm 40.
4. By the time we get to the theatre, the movie will have started will have been starting already.
5. By 7:00 pm, I 'll have worked I'll have been working on this project from 8 hours straight.
6. Our lessons begin are beginning at 4:00 PM every Monday and Wednesday.
7. I'm having about to have lunch with Tess at midday.
8. Sally 's being going to be a doctor in the future.
9. Some apps will disappear are about to disappear these days from the market.
10. Our neighbouring country is is being on the brink of collapse.
11. The two historical enemies are on the point to reach of reaching an agreement.
12. Greece is due for repaying to repay around £6 million to its creditors next semester.
13. Prince William is to visit is due to Paris for the first time since his marriage.
14. Nine care homes for the elderly are likely close are to close by the end of March.
15. You are not having left not to leave this room until I say so.
16. His new film is bound to win of winning the heart of every romantic out there.
17. The government is likely to be passing to pass new regulations very soon.
18. It's likely that the company to have to pay will have to pay for the damages.

ON SCREEN C2 MODULE 2 THE FUTURE

② FILL IN THE BLANKS WITH THE MOST SUITABLE FUTURE TENSES.

1. I (give) you a ride home after work if you behave well today.
2. Brazil's economy (continue) to grow over the next 10 years.
3. At 10:30 tomorrow morning, I (give) a presentation in English class.
4. He (watch) the football game tonight at 8.
5. We (travel) to 12 different countries by 2025.
6. By the time she graduates, she (study) for seven years.
7. By this time next year, they (live) in Japan for two decades.
8. My plane (leave) tomorrow at 9:00 AM.
9. Pat (have) a baby in the summer.
10. Scientists say they (find) a vaccine.
11. They are on the verge of (become) the team to win more finals in history
12. The secretary is due (arrive) in Montreal tomorrow morning.
13. All employees are (attend) a health and safety orientation at the end of the week.
14. They're bound (like) him. He's such a sweet guy.
15. It's unlikely that the weather (change) over the next few days

ON SCREEN C2 MODULE 2 THE FUTURE

③ CLASSIFY THESE FUTURE TENSES ACCORDING TO THEIR FUNCTION.

FUTURE SIMPLE

He will insist calling until I pick the phone. I hope you'll forgive me one day.

The phone's ringing. I'll pick it up. The PM will meet other European leaders during his visit.

What shall we do with these papers? It will snow heavily next week

SAMPLE SENTENCE	FUNCTION
	Decisions at the moment of speaking
	Promises, threats, requests, hopes & offers
	Future actions we cannot control
	Insistence and determination
	Formal announcements
	Asking for advice, giving instructions

SIMPLE PRESENT, PRESENT CONTINUOUS & GOING TO

Our plane leaves tomorrow at 9.30am

I'm going to clean off my desk this morning.

I'm driving to London tomorrow morning

Miles is going to study Law at the University.

We're going to be late with this heavy traffic

SAMPLE SENTENCE	FUNCTION
	Plans, intentions or ambitions
	Predictions based on present evidence
	With verbs of movement (go & come)
	Scheduled actions
	Arranged plans

FUTURE CONTINUOUS, FUT. PERFECT SIMPLE & FUT. PERFECT CONTINUOUS

I('m seeing) 'll be seeing Mike this afternoon This time next week, I'll be starting my holidays

Students are not to eat in the Assembly Hall The videocall is about/bound to be cancelled =on the verge/point/brink of being cancelled

