

Comparative and Superlative adjectives

1. Complete the sentences:

- a.  Burj Khalifa is _____ building in the world. (tall)
- b.  Summer is _____ than winter and fall. (warm)
- c.  Alaska is _____ than the Sahara Desert. (cold)
- d.  Lauren thinks having a salad for lunch is _____ than eating burgers.
(good)
- e.  The blue dress is _____ than the yellow one. (beautiful)
- f.  Vatican City is _____ country in the world. (small)

2. Write sentences to compare:

- a.   use: Mouse/Cat/Small
-

- b.   use: Gorilla/Elephant/Big
-

c.

use: Lily/Betty/excited

Lily Betty

3. Read and complete the text about Football. Write the words in comparative or superlative form.

Football is one of the world's _____ (popular) sports. The _____ (old) professional football club in the world which was founded in 1857 still exists today! The World Cup was made to showcase the _____ (good) professional football players in the world. Many people have different opinions about football. Some think Germany's football team is _____ (good) than Spain's Real Madrid while others believe that they are both equally great! The _____ (interesting) fact about football would be that the highest score ever recorded in a professional football match was 149-0 when a team purposely lost the game due to an argument with a referee. Many people think that basketball is _____ (excite) than football because it is _____ (fast) which is great to watch as no one would get bored. However, many don't know that the first ever game of basketball was played by a football!