

you Would like some coffee?

like you would to drink? What you Would some pancakes for breakfast? like favourite food What's your for lunch?

you like or salad for dinner? Would some pasta

Answer the questions

1. How often do you go on picnics?
2. Where do you go?
3. Who do you go with?
4. What do you like to eat?
5. What games do you play?

Put the sentences in the correct order

Eva: Here you are. Take your salad.

Lucy: I'm hungry! Let's have lunch.

Lucy: No, thank you. I don't like rice. I'd like some salad. please.

Eva: Good idea! Would you like some rice with vegetables?

Read and choose
the correct options

Ben likes going on picnics. He's also fond of cooking. Look!
Ben's cooking food for a picnic. His favourite food is soup with vegetables.
He likes pasta, salad and pancakes too. His favourite drink is a milkshake.
Ben loves bananas, but he doesn't like apples. He doesn't drink coffee, and he hates rice.

Ben's fond of cooking.

Now Ben's cooking breakfast.

His favourite food is fish soup.

Ben likes apples.

Ben doesn't like coffee and rice.

Write about your favourite food.

Study the example:

I like eating pancakes for breakfast.

Useful language:

- breakfast
- lunch
- dinner
- pasta
- soup
- pancakes
- salad
- coffee
- milkshake
- vegetables
- rice
- chips
- cake
- cheese
- sandwich
- pizza
- sausage
- chicken
- milk
- juice
- lemonade
- bread
- egg
- fish
- meat