

SOME, ANY, SOMEBODY, ANYBODY, SOMETHING, ANYTHING

Complete the dialogues with the words from the box.

Some 4x, something 1x, somebody 1x, any 3x,
anything 2x, anybody 1x

At Karen's house:

Karen: I've made _____ scones. Would you like _____?

Mitch: I've never eaten _____ scones. I'd love _____.

Dave: No, thanks. I can't eat _____. I've just eaten _____ biscuits. But can I have _____ to drink?

At the bookshop:

Shop assistant 1 to shop assistant 2: I think there's _____ at the counter.

Emma (at the counter): Hello?! ... Is there _____?

Shop assistant 2 arrives at the counter: Is there _____ I can do for you?

Emma: Yes, I need _____ felt pens.

At school:

Teacher: Do you have _____ questions?

Students: No, we don't have _____ questions.

Match the phrases to complete the rules:

- | | |
|--|----------------------------|
| 1) We use some, somebody, someone and something | A. in questions. |
| 2) We use any, anyone, anybody and anything | B. in negative statements. |
| 3) We use some and something | C. in offers and requests. |
| 4) We use any, anyone, anybody and anything | D. in positive statements. |