

Test. Vocabulary. Units 1-3

Choose the correct preposition:

Do you get on your sister?

She applied a job in car sales.

She has a bad attitude her parents.

They have a great selection cakes.

I don't look good dark colors.

This bag is high quality.

They replaced the factory a shopping center.

Most people go to work public transport.

Word families. Change the word in bold to make another part of speech to suit the second phrase; write it down in the box

e.g. give a presentation - she is a very good presenter

1. stiff competition – a highly sphere
2. play tennis for relaxation – a very weekend by the sea
3. apply for a job – send in your by e-mail
4. sign a letter – her was on the letter
5. he is a talented jeweler – he makes beautiful
6. they reduced the price by 50% – we got a 50%
7. my teacher inspired me – a had a very teacher
8. look both ways before you cross the road – a pedestrian
9. commit a crime – two escaped from the police
10. an exciting new job – I am very about my job

Match the words with the sentences (drag and drop):

Money can a major role in my decision.

I am going to the contract tomorrow.

In order to understand how this gadget works you need to instructions in the manual.

You need to call the doctor to make an
.

I took the laptop back to the shop, because it was a button was loose.

In this shoe shop they always have a wide of boots.

There were many people shopping there, so we had to wait in a .

They coat is a bit big, but you'll into it.

Do you want to stop the car and your legs?

How much did the taxi driver
you?

I could never to live in London.
It's too expensive.

sign

selection

follow

appointment

damaged

stretch

queue

charge

grow

play

afford