

Listen and match

He puts the pieces of orange, apple and banana in his salad. He doesn't put any pears or plums in it.

She has got the pieces of mango, lemon and a handful of grapes in her salad. She hasn't got any bananas or apples in it.

He puts the pieces of pear, plum and watermelon in his salad. He doesn't like mangoes and grapes in it.

She washes, peels, cuts and mixes some oranges and mangoes for her salad. She cuts a piece of watermelon too. She doesn't put any plums in her salad and doesn't squeeze lemons in it.

1. Ann has got

- some apples,
- a melon,
- some bananas,
- a mango,
- some cream,
- a watermelon,
- some pears,
- some oranges.

2. She has also got

- some yoghurt,
- some juice,
- a lemon,
- a kiwi,
- some grapes,
- some plums,
- a pineapple,
- some strawberries.

banana grape apple lemon orange watermelon

1. It's a fruit. It's long and yellow. Monkeys like it. — It's a .
2. It's very small, and it can be green, purple or black. — It's a .
3. It's yellow. You can make a drink from it. — It's a .
4. It's a fruit and a colour. You can make juice from it. — It's an .
5. It can be red, yellow and green. It is round. — It's an .
6. It's green. It's red inside. It's round. It's not a grape. — It's a .