My name is Fred. Every year we have a sports day at our school. This year it was on the last day of school. My grandfather, grandmother and my cousin, Lucy came too! The first game was basketball. Our parents played with my friends. It was funny to see my mum and dad run, jump and throw the ball. Then there was a race for the younger children. Lucy and I started running after the bell. We didn't win the race but everyone in my family clapped their hands. My grandfather also took lots of pictures with this camera. I was so happy because we had a fantastic day together!
