

CLUE 3

Number the parts of Thanksgiving story in the correct order. Then match them to the pictures. The answer will be whichever picture doesn't match

Thanksgiving Day soon spread all over America. It is always celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November. It is a public holiday.

The next Autumn, the pilgrims had a plentiful harvest. They were so happy that they decided to celebrate and invited the Indians. This was the first Thanksgiving.

The winter was very cold. Many of them got sick and died. But, some Indians helped the pilgrims by showing them how to hunt animals, fish, grow corn...

Long time ago, in 1620, a ship called Mayflower came to America. There was a group of about one hundred people on the ship. They were called Pilgrims.
