

Exercise 4

Look at the chart. Correct the underlined mistakes in the sentences. Use the words in the box.

between by during for since

1. Since 2025, the number of people in Country C moving from countryside to the city will have exceeded 90 million.

2. Country B experienced a steady increase in movement from rural to urban areas for the years 2000 to 2015.

3. There has been a large increase in population movement in all three countries by the figures began being recorded in 2000.

4. 2010 and 2015, the number of people moving to urban areas in Country A climbed dramatically

5. The number of people moving to urban areas in Country C and Country A will increase during the foreseeable future.

