

Comparative and superlative of adjectives

1. Write the comparative and superlative forms
(Uzraksti īpašības vārdu pārāko un vispārāko pakāpi).

| Adjective(īpašības vārds) | Comparative(pārākā pakāpe) | Superlative(vispārākā pakāpe) |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| fit                           |                                |                                   |
| kind                          |                                |                                   |
| funny                         |                                |                                   |
| clever                        |                                |                                   |
| strong                        |                                |                                   |
| brave                         |                                |                                   |
| easy                          |                                |                                   |
| good                          |                                |                                   |
| bad                           |                                |                                   |
| big                           |                                |                                   |
| heavy                         |                                |                                   |

2. Choose the correct option
(Izvēlies pareizo īpašības vārda formu).

Alex is _____ than Mike. Mike is the _____ boy in this picture. Jo likes sports. She is very _____. She is the _____ girl in the class. Sophie is _____ Jo. Tom is the _____ boy in the team.