

There is/are + noun + preposition

Look at the picture and choose the correct sentence.

1.

There is a lamp next to the sofa.

There is a lamp between the sofa.

4.

There are flowers next to the shower.

There are flowers in the shower.

2.

There is a computer behind the desk.

There is a computer on the desk.

5.

There are towels under the shelf.

There are towels on the shelf.

3.

There is a window behind the table.

There is a window next to the table.

6.

There are dishes under the shelf.

There are dishes in front of the shelf.