

Pick the right verb form:

1. She writes / write every day.
2. They writes / write every day.
3. You and I writes / write every day.
4. The students and the teacher writes / write every day.
5. The student and the teacher writes / write every day.
6. The students and the teachers writes / write every day.
7. The student and the teacher writes / write every day.
8. Time and distance is / are reflective of speed.
9. The students or the teacher writes / write every day.
10. The teacher or the students writes / write every day.
11. Each of the participants was / were willing to be recorded.
12. Neither alternative hypothesis was / were accepted.
13. I will offer a $5 gift card to everybody who participates / participate in the study.
14. No one was / were available to meet with me at the preferred times
15. Education is / are the key to success.
16. Diabetes affects / affect many people around the world.
17. The information obtained from the business owners was / were relevant to include in the study.
18. The research I found on the topic was / were limited.
19. The earnings for this quarter exceeds / exceed expectations.
20. The proceeds from the sale goes / go to support the homeless population in the city.
21. Locally produced goods has / have the advantage of shorter supply chains.

<https://academicguides.waldenu.edu/writingcenter/grammar/subjectverbagreement>