

6th level Natural Science

UNIT 1: How do we respond to stimuli?

1. Match the definitions to the correct life process. Draw a line to match!

interaction

reproduction

nutrition

Actions done by living things to get materials and energy they need to grow and develop

How living things perceive and respond to their environment and other living things

How living things create similar living beings

2. Match the sensory organ to the correct sense. Draw a line to match!

eyes

ears

nose

tongue

skin

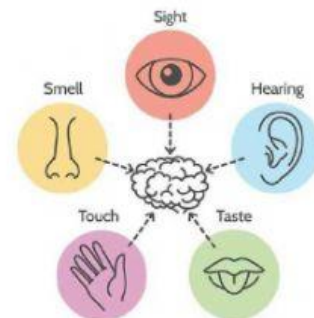

taste

sound

sight

touch

smell

3. Complete the sentences with the correct words. Drag and drop!

The skeleton

Bones

The Muscular
system

supports our bodies and gives them shape.

are the hard parts that make up our skeleton.

consists of muscles and tendons.

4. Complete this sentence by filling in the blanks with the correct word choice. The nervous consists of 4 parts: the brain, the cerebellum, the _____ and the _____.

GOOD JOB!!!

