

Exercise 3

Read the information. Then read the adjectives in the box. The adjectives can all be used by writers to give their opinions or to evaluate what other writers have said. Choose the correct adjectives for each category. The first one has been done for you.

IELTS Reading texts often contain a writer's opinions – as well as their evaluations of what other writers have said.

Undeniable	ambiguous	misguided	valid	unsure	flawed evident
Vague	genuine	inaccurate	legitimate	distinct
		unmistakable	mistaken
		uncertain

obvious	unclear
clear

true	untrue