ELEPHANT ORPHANAGE

Pinnawela Elephant Orphanage is the home of more than 60 elephants. Many of them are baby elephants. Their mothers died, and the baby elephants can't live alone. They need someone to feed them.

At Pinnawela Elephant Orphanage, people feed the baby elephants. They give them milk in big bottles. A baby elephant needs to drink a lot of milk, about 7 big bottles per day!

Tourists go to the orphanage to see the elephants every day. They can watch the baby elephants drink their milk or have a bath in the river. Elephants love water. They go to the river twice a day.

At Pinnawela Elephant Orphanage, baby elephants find a new family.
