Evangelical Christianity

A very popular Protestant movement in the USA (a quarter of the population is believed to be Evangelical). It is also quite influential in politics.
Evangelicals have four main sets of beliefs:

- the Bible is all true and can be taken literally,
- Jesus Christ is the saviour,
- individuals must convert, must be "born again",
- their religion has to be spread, evangelized.

Some Evangelical Christians can be quite conservative, even fundamentalist.
