UNIT 3. REPRODUCTION
STAGES OF LIFE

1. Complete the text about reproduction.

Women and men have different external and internal _____ organs. They also produce different types of sex _____ .

In order to reproduce, humans must go through the changes of _____ where they develop into an adult.

A baby is produced when sex cells from an _____ male and female come together during sexual reproduction and develop.

All cells, including sex cells, contain _____ information or genes that allow characteristics, like eye colour, to be passed from parents to children.

LIVEWORKSHEETS