UNIT 3. SPAIN IN THE 19th CENTURY
WAR OF INDEPENDENCE

1. Choose the right option.

With Napoleon dominating Europe in battle, Carlos [ ] and his valido decided that they should ally with France and Napoleon rather than fight against them. The alliance [ ] and a war against France followed.

Prime Minister Manuel Godoy signed a secret treaty with France to conquer and divide up [ ].

Instead of just passing through Spain, the French forces started to occupy fortresses in the [ ] and centre of the country. The people were angry about the [ ] occupation and grew tired of Godoy's policies and revolted. They captured Godoy and forced Carlos IV to pass the crown to his son, Fernando [ ].

LIVEWORKSHEETS