

THE NERVOUS SYSTEM

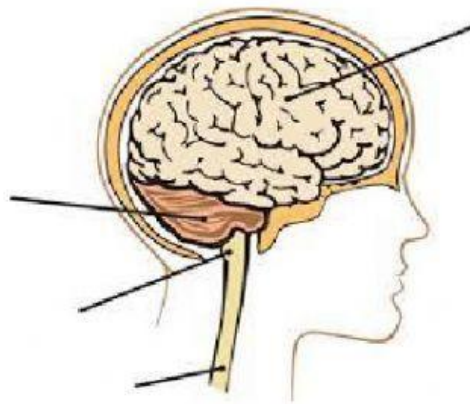

1. PARTS OF THE BRAIN. Label the pictures of the nervous system.

SPINAL CORD

CEREBRUM

CEREBELLUM

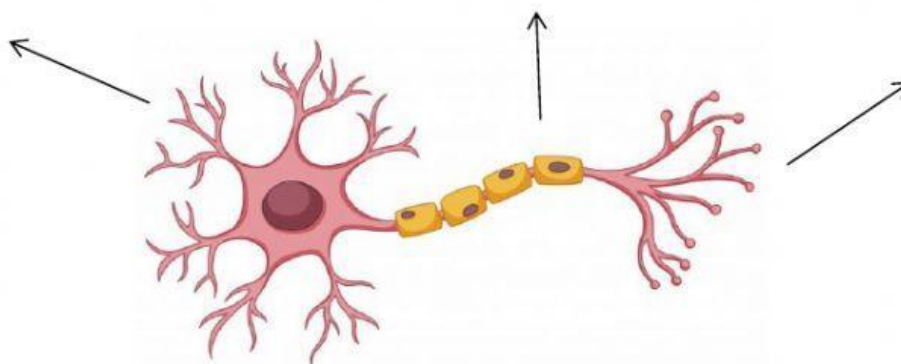

BRAIN STEM

2. WHICH ORGAN? Write brain, nerves, brain stem or spinal cord.

- a) It sends and receives information to and from parts of the body.
- b) They connect the spinal cord to the muscles, joints and skin.
- c) It connects the brain to the nerves.
- d) It's made up of cerebrum, cerebellum and brain stem.
- e) It connects the brain to the spinal cord and coordinates messages.
- f) It's made up of nerve tissue, forming a long tube.

3. NERVE CELLS. Label the neuron and complete the text.

Neurons are -shaped cells. They have a cell body, a extension called the and short, thin fibers called . They transmit messages by creating electrical or impulses.