

Fill in the blanks with the correct answers.

The Choir Club

Annie and her close friend, Jane, like to sing. They join their school _____ club. Last month, they _____ in the Inter-school Singing Competition _____ by the State Education Department. The competition was _____ at a nearby school. They practiced everyday from three to five o'clock in the evening. They _____ hard because they wanted to win in the competition.

Finally the day came. Aini and her team members came early to the school. There were ten schools that took part. When their team was called, Annie and her friends walked up to the stage _____. They sang very well and therefore the audience _____ and cheered for them. When the result was _____, everyone was so nervous. Finally, Aini's team won the first prize and received RM1000 and a _____. The teacher-in-charge, Mr Tan was very happy with his choir members.

Her headmaster, Mr Samuel took them to hi-tea at a hotel as a _____ for their hard work.

participated	clapped	choir	reward	trained
confidently	held	announced	organised	trophy