

The Lost Ring

Mr. Brown is a stupid man. He used to do many strange things that people couldn't understand. One night, the light in his house went off. He came out of the house and started finding something. After a while, a man saw him and asked, "What are you doing?" Mr. Brown answered, "I'm searching for my ring." The man asked again, "Don't you remember where you put it?" Mr. Brown said, "I put it on the dining table before I washed the dishes. When I finished washing, the light suddenly went off. So, I came out of the house and searched for it." The man looked at Mr. Brown strangely and said, "Then why don't you search it in the house?" Mr. Brown answered angrily, "It is so dark in the house. How can I find it there?"

Answer the following questions.

1. What did Mr. Brown use to do?
2. When the light went off, what did he do?
3. What was Mr. Brown searching for?
4. Where did he put it before he washed the dishes?
5. What was Mr. Brown's answer when a man asked him for not searching it in the house?

GOOD JOB!