

Name: _____

ADVERBS PRACTICE

I. Type up the adverb on the line before the number. (10 points)

- _____ 1. My mom nervously crossed her arms because she was scared.
- _____ 2. I sincerely hope that she will be okay.
- _____ 3. Yesterday, there was an accident in front of our house.
- _____ 4. I had never seen so much fear in my life.
- _____ 5. Honestly, I thought everyone in the crash would be gone.
- _____ 6. Thankfully, not one person was hurt.
- _____ 7. Mom just got really afraid because she hates loud noises.
- _____ 8. Seeing that accident made me grateful for what I have here.
- _____ 9. I sighed deeply at the thought of losing those I love.
- _____ 10. I am extremely thankful.

II. Fill in the chart accordingly. Identify the adverb, the word it describes, and the part of speech of the described word. (30 points)

Sentence	Adverb	Word Described	Part of Speech (V, ADJ, ADV)
1. Yesterday, Coach Bombay entered Team USA.
2. He nearly made the NHL, but he got an awful injury.
3. So unfortunately, he came back home.
4. The team was extremely happy to see him.
5. They excitedly banded together again.
6. They were much older.
7. They had grown up well.
8. Coach Bombay was extremely ready to take on a new challenge.
9. He blissfully put on his new jersey.
10. I really wonder what will happen.			