

RELATIVE CLAUSES.

Use WHICH / WHO / WHERE / WHEN / WHOSE to complete the following sentences

Don't use THAT

1. Can you see the book _____ the teacher told us to read?
2. Dogs _____ like cats are very unusual.
3. George is the guy _____ is talking on the phone right now.
4. Have you seen the woman _____ dog barks all night long?
5. I can perfectly remember the day _____ we won the lottery. It was great!
6. Don't forget to accept the invitation _____ they sent to you if you want to attend the meeting.
7. Has anybody seen the calendar _____ I used to have on my bedside table?
8. Marie Curie is the woman _____ discovered radium.
9. The farmer _____ name was Fred sold us some potatoes.
10. Bilbao, _____ is a nice and pleasant city to live, has become a reference in Spain.
11. That is the restaurant _____ we celebrated our wedding anniversary.
12. Bilbao, _____ we live, is a very modern city.

Join the following sentences using a relative clause as in the example

A penguin is a bird. A penguin can't fly. → A penguin is a bird which can't fly.

1. James works in a restaurant. The restaurant is near Oxford Street.
James works in a restaurant _____ is near OS
2. Rachel is the girl. Rachel lives next door to me.
Rachel is the girl _____ lives next door to me
3. They live in an old house. The roof of the house is full of holes.
They live in an old house _____ roof is full of holes
4. An elephant is an animal. The elephant lives in hot places.
An elephant is an animal _____ lives in hot places

5. Only a woman attended the meeting. That woman was very popular.

Only the woman was very popular attended the meeting

6. I can't find the smartwatch. I bought the smartwatch two days ago.

I can't find the smartwatch I bought two days ago

Remove the highlighted parts using a relative clause as in the example

The funny dogs played until nine in the evening

The dogs which were funny played until nine in the evening

1. The man working at Mercadona lives in Bilbao
2. The girl sitting next to Sarah is my neighbour's daughter.
3. The beautiful house was sold for €300,000.
4. The box on the table was made in Italy.
5. The man at the school meeting spoke about education in Spain.