DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

I. Name the organs

Esophagus	Small intestine	Mouth	Stomach	Saliva	Large intestine	Teeth

2. Order the steps of digestion:

The stomach turns the food into a thick liquid.	1.
The food goes to the esophagus.	2.
The waste is eliminated by the large intestine.	3.
The liquid goes to the small intestine.	4.
The teeth break the food.	5.
It absorbs the nutrients.	6.
The saliva mixes the food.	7.
Then it goes to the stomach.	8.
The liquid goes to the large intestine.	9.

3. What organ is it?

It absorbs the nutrients.

It collects the waste and gets rid of it.

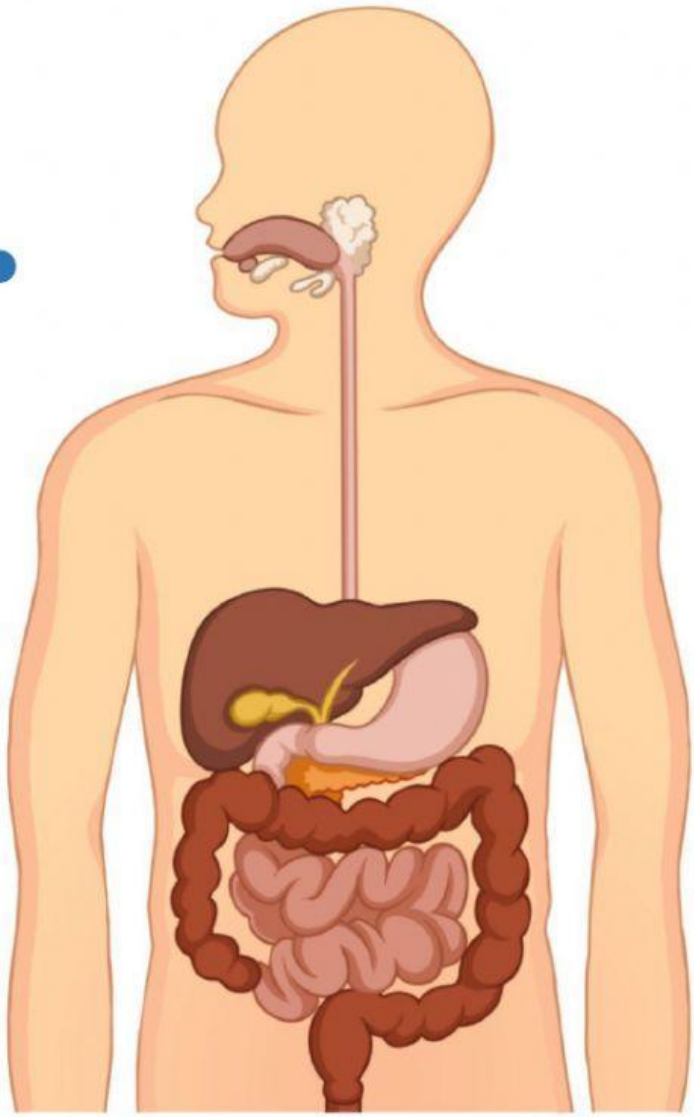

It breaks the food in small pieces.

It connects the mouth and the stomach.

It turns the food into a thick liquid.

It mixes the food.

4. Match:

Small intestine

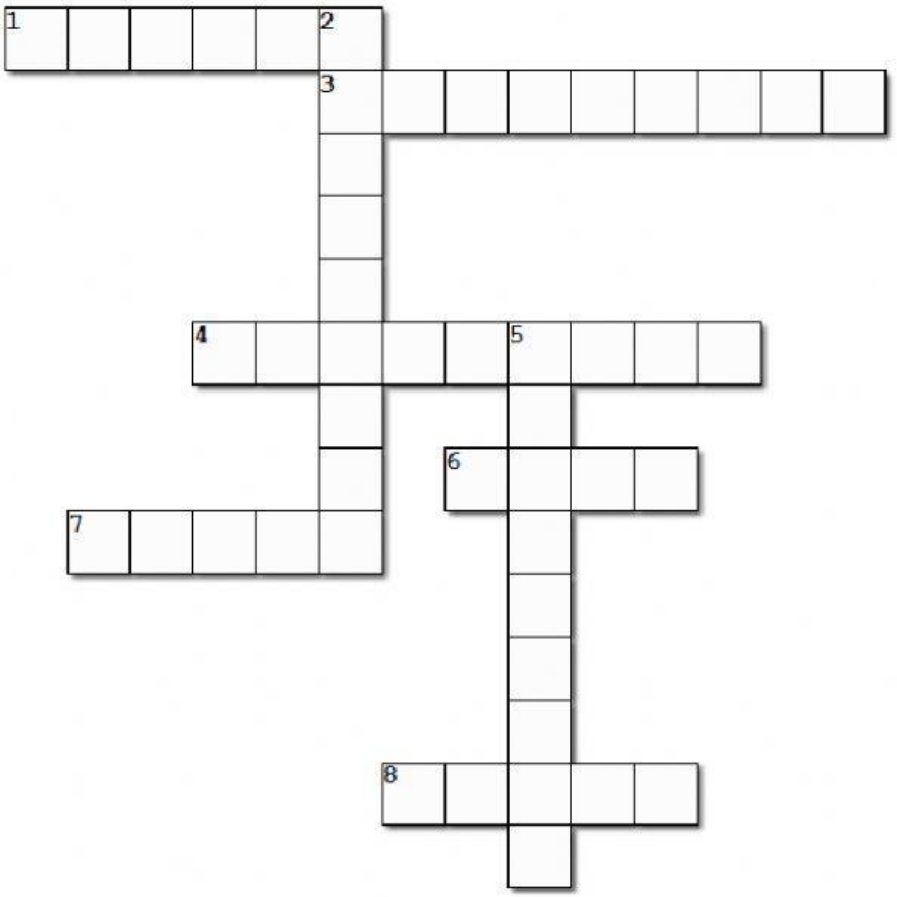

Mouth

Eshophagus

Large intestine

Stomach

5. Complete the crossword:

1. The food becomes this in the stomach.

2. Body system that helps us to get the nutrients from food when we eat.

3. An organ that can be small or large.

4. They are absorbed in the small intestine.

5. Organ that connects the mouth and the stomach.

6. What we eat.

7. The large intestine gets rid of it.

8. It has teeth and saliva.