Many years have passed since the day when Smaug the dragon attacked the dwarves in the Lonely Mountain. Life had been very difficult  them,. They had  abandon their homes and their belongings and search  a new place  live. So they have a deep hatred  Smaug. One day, quite by chance Gandalf met Thorin, the dwarf leader, in a pub. They started  talk and form a plan  travel  the mountain, kill Smaug and reclaim their treasures.

Then Gandalf went  the Shire, where he visited Bilbo. He persuaded the reluctant hobbit  join the dwarves in their adventure  reclaim their home. The dwarves didn't like the idea of Bilbo going with them but Gandalf told them that they needed a "borrower"  rob the treasure  Smaug. So they reach an agreement : Bilbo had  help them and in return, one twelfth (1/12) of the treasure would be  him.

The group started their journey. They traveled  many days and had many adventures. Gandalf disappeared and then returned  save the group from trolls. Then he took them  Rivendell, the home of the Elves, where they rested  a while and asked Elrond  decipher their map. After leaving Rivendell, they started  climb over the Misty Mountains. The weather was horrendous and they were forced  take shelter in a cave. During the night, the goblins caught them and took them underground. Fortunately, Gandalf escaped and arrived  rescue them just in time. As they ran away from the goblins, Bilbo got lost. He found a ring and then met Gollum. They played a game of riddles. If Bilbo won, as a reward  solving the riddles, gollum would have  show him the way out of the tunnels, but if he lost, he would become dinner  Gollum.

Thanks  the ring, Bilbo managed  escape and found himself outside.  him, it felt like weeks since they entered the mountain and he wondered whether his friends would have waited  him. He found the dwarves arguing with Gandalf. They didn't want  re-enter the mountain  look  Bilbo. But then to their amazement, Bilbo appeared from nowhere and they were reunited.

Goblins were furious at them  killing their king, so they have  run  many days. But with the help of the wolves, the dwarves are surrounded by the goblins. Then suddenly the eagles arrived and carried them  safety. Gwaihir, the greatest of the eagles, was indebted to Gandalf  saving him from a poisoned arrow.
