

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

Put the words in the correct order and make affirmative and negative sentences. See the example.

My parents	have (not) got	a beautiful	TV	in their room subject	verb	adjective	object compl.	adverbials under the tree	a big	present	Jenny	hasn't got bedroom	my sister and I	at home	haven't got	a large has got	under the table	the dog	a big	bone expensive	phones	have got	in their bags	the students my relatives	a beautiful	flat	in London	haven't got car	my uncle	in his garage	has got	a new on the desk	a good	computer	our classroom	hasn't got books	my friends	at home	have got	interesting hasn't got	this year	Molly	a new	PE teacher a new	dish	has got	on his menu	the chef