

REVIEW: much – many / a few – a little

1. Fill in the gaps with “much” or “many”

How money do you need?

How bottles of oil did you buy?

I haven't got butter.

How books are there in your bag?

The baby hasn't got milk.

How cheese have you got?

I don't see people here.

2. Fill in the gaps with “a little” or “a few” or “any”

There is yoghurt in the fridge.

I need oranges for the juice.

I'd like steak.

Please, buy bottles of water.

There are students in the seminar.

I don't need packets of biscuits.

3. Decide if the following sentences are right or wrong

I haven't got any cheese.	Right	wrong
I haven't got much cheese.	Right	wrong
I have a lot of grapes.	Right	wrong
I have a little grapes.	Right	wrong
I need a few milk	Right	wrong
I want a little oil.	Right	wrong
I eat a quite a lot of fruit.	Right	wrong