D. Complete the sentences by circling the correct question tag at the end of the sentence.

1. I couldn't possibly ask for a pay rise, can't I / could I ?
2. I am qualified for the position, am I / aren't I ?
3. Let's find information for our assignment on the Internet, let us not / shall we ?
4. Lock the door, will you / should you ?
5. I'm not required to attend the meeting aren't I / am I ?
6. You watched the football match, don't you / didn't you ?
7. You hadn't cooked dinner, had you / didn't you ?

E. Complete the sentences by writing the appropriate question tag at the end of each statement.

1. Mop the floor, _____?
2. She isn't going to buy him that expensive watch, _____?
3. I am going to get the promotion, _____?
4. Somebody should order paper for the fax machine, _____?
5. It isn't too late, _____?
6. She works out every day, _____?
7. He wasn't working for a publishing firm at that time, _____?

English in use

F. Read the text below and complete the gaps. Use only one word in each gap.

did as not were since pay of may/might get on

I have loved the theatre ever (1) _____ I was a little child, but becoming a theatre critic was not something I had planned (2) _____. In fact, believe it or (3) _____, I started out as an accountant, and I must say I was quite fond (4) _____ it. All that changed, however, when one day I was asked by the local drama society to be a member of a group that would review all the plays that (5) _____ going to be put on during that season. As I love the theatre, I accepted. Although it (6) _____ sound quite easy, it was really hard work. A good critic has to (7) _____ attention not only to the acting, but also to the set, the costumes, the lighting and, in general, to everything. However, I enjoyed every minute of it. And the best thing of all was that my opinion mattered (8) _____ much as the professionals'. The encouraging comments I received about my work made me seriously consider changing career and I eventually (9) _____. I must say I have never regretted it, and now I (10) _____ paid for doing my favourite hobby - watching plays.

LIVEWORKSHEETS