

“

Horizontal coordinates

”

Part 1 Look at the horizontal coordinates model and answer the questions

1. The sticker represents the highest point of the celestial meridian. This point is called the .
2. The sticker represents the lowest point of the celestial meridian. This point is called the .
3. The sticker represents the point where the land/water and the sky meet. This point is called the .
4. The sticker represents the vertical circle that passes through the North celestial pole to the South celestial pole. This is called the .

Part 2 Look at the picture and fill in the missing parts of the celestial meridian correctly.

