

I. Read the sentences and choose what they express:
an offer, possibility, request, permission,
prohibition, ability, deduction, obligation, necessity,
absence of necessity.

1. I will help you decorate your room. ____
2. This sign says that you mustn't eat in the museum. ____
3. Mary can paint very well. That's why she became an artist. ____
4. Irene may be at home now. ____
5. Look at the way she moves! She must be a dancer! ____
6. Could I borrow your green dress? ____
7. They don't have to finish painting the house today. ____
8. We need to go shopping. There's nothing in the fridge. ____
9. If you want to go out, you have to tidy your room. ____
10. Dad, can I stay at Mary's house tonight? ____

II. Choose the correct options.

1. A: Will / May you turn off the TV, please? – B: I can't / mustn't. I'm doing the washing-up.
2. A: Don't worry. You mustn't / don't have to finish your project today. You can / might finish it tomorrow. – B: I know. But I want to finish it now.
3. A: Charles must / can't be at home studying. – B: That's right. He's got two exams tomorrow.
4. A: May / Need I tidy my room now? I want to go out and play? – B: Well, you can't / couldn't go out until you tidy your room!

III. Read the text and choose which items a, b or c are the correct to complete the sentences.

I was my birthday last month and I (1) ____ a wonderful present. My best friend Timothy (2) ____ me a puppy which I (3) ____ Barks. My sister was very excited. My mum liked him, but she said, "If you (4) ____ the puppy, you and your sister must take care of him, because I don't have the time. He (5) ____ out of the house and don't forget that he (6) ____ for a walk every day." We agreed and Barks became a member of the family. A dog house (7) ____ in the garden for him because he (8) ____ to come into the house. He is very friendly and he (9) ____ by everybody. He really loves it when he (10) ____ for a walk. He also loves food, but I (11) ____ careful because he (12) ____ too much.

In the end, if you love your puppy, it isn't difficult to take care of it!

IV. Choose the correct preposition to complete the sentences.

1. I'm sorry I can't wait for you. I'm _____ a hurry.
2. Can you pick Jake _____ from the airport tonight?
3. My father isn't very outgoing. _____ the other hand, he's very active. He works out at least 4 times a week.
4. I couldn't log _____ last night. There was a problem with my Internet.
5. Mary is still angry at me. I called her but she just hung _____.
6. I'm sure you can take part in that race and get a medal. Just go _____ it!
7. _____ my view. James should start working out more.
8. The money I found on the street came _____ very handy.
9. Can you collect my new mobile _____ the shop?
10. Pick _____ the phone, please. I'm busy.