

Are GMOs good or bad?

Task 1. Watch video.

<https://youtu.be/7TmcXyp8xu4>

Task 2. Choose the correct answer.

1. Eating GMO plants is no more risky than their non-GMO equivalent.

True or false?

- True
- False

2. Is food that comes from GM crops completely different to food from non-GM crops?

- Yes, they are completely different.
- Yes, but there are exceptions.
- No, they are not different.

3. GMO as a technology is more as an ally and not an enemy. Choose two correct answers.

- Almost all GMOs produce pesticides.
- It helps to save and protect nature.
- It minimizes our impact on the environment.
- It increases the use of insecticides.

4. Though humans eat 11 million pounds of food every day, the United Nation estimates humans will need _____ more food by 2050.

- 30 %
- 40 %
- 70 %
- 80 %

5. GMO could be the most powerful weapon to save our biosphere.

- True
- False.

Task 3. Think and answer.

- ✓ What are some common objections to GMOs?
- ✓ Why are plants that have been engineered to be toxic safe for humans?
- ✓ Do you have concerns over GMOs? Why or why not?

A large rectangular area for writing answers, framed by a decorative border of ice cream cones.

