

Asking the concierge for sightseeing advice

A: The _____ told me to ask you for sightseeing advice.

B: Of course. I'd be more than happy to help. I am, after all, the hotel's concierge.

A: Concierge? What exactly is that?

B: We _____ you on where to visit, eat, or shop during your stay here in New York.

A: Great! So _____?

B: The Statue of Liberty is always a _____

A: I saw the Statue of Liberty on my last visit here. _____?

B: Hmm. What type of interests do you have?

A: In my spare time, I really like to _____ and _____.

B: Aha! _____ Central Park or the Museum of Modern Art?

A: No, but I've heard a lot about both.

B: Well, Central Park is _____. Afterwards, you should head to the Museum to _____.

A: Great! That sounds like a plan. Thanks a lot.

B: _____ there.
