

- 11 Look at the chart comparing two laptop computers. Complete the sentences, using (not) as ... as and the adjectives. Use the adverbs almost, quite, just, and nearly.

|                      | Ace EC650u laptop | Simsun B400 laptop |
|----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Price                | $619                                                                                                  | $599                                                                                                    |
| Weight               | 5 pounds / 2.3 kilograms                                                                               | 3 pounds / 1.4 kilograms                                                                                 |
| Screen size          | 16 inches / 40.6 centimeters                                                                           | 15.5 inches / 39.4 centimeters                                                                           |
| Screen quality       |                       |                        |
| Touchpad ease of use |                       |                        |
| Speed                |                       |                        |
| Speaker quality      |                       |                        |
| Noise                |                       |                        |

KEY

Better

Worse

- The quality of the Ace screen is just as good as the quality of the Simsun screen.
- The Simsun laptop is more expensive than the Ace laptop.
- The Simsun touchpad isn't as easy to use as the Ace touchpad.
- The Simsun laptop is not as fast as the Ace laptop.
- The Ace speakers are not as good as the Simsun speakers.
- The Ace laptop isn't as light as the Simsun laptop.
- The Simsun screen isn't as large as the Ace screen.

- 12 CHALLENGE. Which laptop in Exercise 11 would you buy? Explain your reasons, using (not) as ... as and some of the adverbs from Exercise 11.

SV tự viết trong vở của mình