

|                                |                                                                                                                                    |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1) accent /'æks(ə)nt/   | a) correct or true in every detail                                                                                                 |
| 2) accurate /'ækjʊrət/  | b) the way someone says words and shows what country or region they come from                                                      |
| 3) frustrated           | c) to be able to live or deal with a situation with difficulty, usually by having just enough of something you need, such as money |
| 4) fluently             | d) to speak, write or communicate in some other way what you think or feel                                                         |
| 5) to get by            | e) feeling ashamed or shy                                                                                                          |
| 6) to master            | f) to try hard to do something you find difficult                                                                                  |
| 7) to pick up           | g) angry or upset because they are being prevented from achieving something                                                        |
| 8) to struggle          | h) very well                                                                                                                       |
| 9) to express yourself  | i) to stop trying to do something because you think it is too difficult                                                            |
| 10) to give up          | j) to learn a new skill over a period of time and without a lot of effort                                                          |
| 11) embarrassed         | k) to learn something thoroughly so that you can do it very well                                                                   |
| 12) bilingual           | l) to have a conversation                                                                                                          |
| 13) hold a conversation | m) able to speak two languages equally well                                                                                        |