

Conversation 1: Items 1-5

Situation: In the hallway

Kim: Hi, Lisa! Long time no see. How are you doing?

Lisa: Oh, hey Kim! _____(1)_____

Kim: You were applying for medical school, right? _____(2)_____

Lisa: I wouldn't say they were easy, but I finally passed.

Kim: _____(3)_____

Lisa: I'd say understanding the materials. _____(4)_____

Kim: Right.

Lisa: They overload you with information. _____(5)_____

Kim: Ahh, that sounds really hard.

1.
  1. I'm feeling bored with my studies.
  2. I'm feeling good about my studies.
  3. I'm feeling relaxed about my studies.
  4. I'm feeling confident with my studies.
  5. I'm feeling exhausted from my studies.
2.
  1. How did the exams go?
  2. How were your assignments?
  3. How did you apply to medical school?
  4. How do you get along with your friends?
  5. How was your relationship with your professor?

3.
  1. What is a medical student supposed to do?
  2. What are the benefits of being a medical student?
  3. What was the easiest part of being a medical student?
  4. What is the most rewarding aspect of being a medical student?
  5. What was the most challenging part of being a medical student?

4.
  1. It takes time.
  2. It is a surprise.
  3. It is a lot of fun.
  4. It takes a big effort.
  5. It requires concentration.

5.
  1. I have to read the materials before I go to class.
  2. I have to remember all the medical vocabulary.
  3. I have to recall all of the content taught in class.
  4. I have to think it through before I start the course.

Conversation 2: Items 6-10

Situation: In a dormitory room

Mark: Hi, Lee! Why are you just standing in the doorway? Why do you look so worried?

Lee: I'm a little worried about my friend's illness.

Mark: So sorry. _____(6)_____

Lee: He has the symptoms of COVID-19.

Mark: Which symptoms does he have?

Lee: He has a fever, a cough, and congestion. _____(7)_____

Mark: _____(8)_____

Lee: For about a few days. Now he is in bed and monitoring his symptoms.

Mark: _____(9)_____ All these events are unprecedented in our lives.

Lee: _____(10)_____

- 6.
1. What a pity!
  2. How's he been feeling?
  3. How about your symptoms?
  4. What do you think he should do?
  5. Why doesn't he go to the doctor?

7.     1. His symptoms are worse.
       2. He is running a temperature.
       3. He is infected with the virus.
       4. He is at a higher risk for coronavirus.
       5. He's been in contact with a COVID-19 patient.
8.     1. When did he get COVID-19?
       2. When did he transmit the virus?
       3. How fast does COVID-19 spread?
       4. When did he visit a crowded place?
       5. How long did his symptoms take to appear?
9.     1. So-so.
       2. Oh well!
       3. Never mind.
       4. Oh my God!
       5. How come?
10.    1. I don't care about him.
       2. I have to take care of myself.
       3. I'm not interested in this situation.
       4. I hope the situation improves soon.
       5. I'm not concerned about his health.

Conversation 3: Items 11-15      In a dormitory living room

John: Hi, how are you doing?

Sandy: I'm just fine, thanks for asking. How about you?

John: I'm doing great. _____(11)_____

Sandy: Right now, four, but I'm thinking of adding another one more.

John: _____(12)_____

Sandy: It was the class I took with Dr. Greenwood last semester.

John: I hope you won't have any more classes with him.

Sandy: _____(13)_____

John: Are you afraid of our classes next semester?

Sandy: I have a more general fear of failure.

John: _____(14)_____ You're a great student.

Sandy: Thanks. _____(15)_____

John: Good luck. Bye.

Sandy: Thanks. Bye. Good night.

11.    1. How many hours do you sleep at night?
      2. How many meals do you take each day?
      3. How many classes are you taking this semester?
      4. How many years do you need to complete the program?
      5. How many books are you reading to prepare for the final exam?

12.    1. What did you do in Dr. Greenwood's class?
      2. What kind of class have you liked the most so far?
      3. What class would you tell your friends not to take?
      4. What did you do with the assignment in your class?
      5. What is the most difficult class you have taken so far?
13.    1. I guess.
      2. No doubt.
      3. I hope so.
      4. Hopefully not.
      5. I'm not either.
- 14     1. Um, I agree.
      2. Yes, certainly.
      3. Wow! I promise.
      4. Well, don't worry.
      5. Oh no! Don't say that.
15.    1. I have to find something to eat.
      2. I have to study for a quiz tomorrow.
      3. I have to turn off the light before I leave.
      4. I have to get up early tomorrow morning.
      5. I have to take a shower before I go to bed.

Conversation 4: Items 16-20

Situation: In the canteen

Bam: Hello, Jackson. _____(16)_____

Jackson: Well, I had the sociology exam this morning.

Bam: _____(17)_____

Jackson: The exam covered the fundamental point of view on sociology. Do you know what it is?

Bam: They asked about the function of people in society.

Jackson: _____(18)_____ Question 3 left me scratching my head because it was so complicated.

Bam: _____(19)_____ The exam was over.

Jackson: That sounds like a good idea.

Bam: _____(20)_____ Let's go find something to eat and listen to some music.

- 16.
1. How's your life?
  2. How was your day?
  3. How come you look so sad?
  4. How's your final exam week going?
  5. How about your exam preparation

17.    1. What was the exam like?
      2. What did you do in your exam week?
      3. What were the questions in the exam?
      4. What did you think about the exam questions?
      5. What did you do to prepare for the exam questions?
18.    1. Oh, I like it!
      2. Oh, I know it!
      3. Oh, I found it!
      4. Oh, I prefer it!
      5. Oh, I understand it!
19.    1. Forget about that.
      2. Ask your professor.
      3. Let's go to the library.
      4. Talk to your classmates.
      5. Let's find the answers to the exam.
20.    1. Pray for yourself.
      2. Ask for a solution.
      3. Look to the future.
      4. Offer some assistance.
      5. Keep your fingers crossed.

