Carl's blog

There are lots of books, websites and TV programmes about amazing people. They've done incredible things and they've had fantastic experiences. I think some of their activities are really dangerous. I don't want to walk to the South Pole or climb Mount Everest, but there are lots of ordinary things that I have never done, and I want to do them before I'm 20. For example, I have never swum in the sea and I have never eaten Japanese food, but they are on my list of things to do. My brother, Henry, has a list of things he hasn't done too. It has some cool activities on it, like ride a horse and ski. He wants to do some of those things in the next two years. I think I'll do them with him. But he also wants to run a marathon! Run 42 kilometres? I don't think I'll do that!

- 1 _____ doesn't want to climb a really high mountain.
- 2 _____ hasn't tried Japanese food.
- 3 _____ want to ski.
- 4 _____ haven't ridden a horse.
- 5 _____ wants to enter a marathon.
- 6 _____ has never swum in the sea.
