

1. Make a sentence using expression "used to":

She lived in Kyiv when she was a kid, now she lives in Lviv.

- She used to live in Kyiv.

1. I went to the park every day when I was a kid. Now I go there at weekends.

2. Kate played basketball when she was at school. Now she doesn't play it.

3. I bought some ice-cream when I returned home. Now I buy some French fries.

4. I didn't do exercises before. Now I do exercises every day.

5. He was lazy when he was young. Now he isn't lazy.

6. She rode a bicycle every day. Now she drives a car.

7. He lived in Barcelona when he was a kid. Now he lives in Madrid.

8. He had a difficult job some time ago. Now he has a good job.

9. She drank a lot of coffee when she studied at the university. Now she drinks orange juice.

10. My cat lived in a box. Now he has his little house.

11. My cat climbed trees every day. Now he walks on the roof every day.

12. He watched a lot of TV when he was a kid. Now he watches Youtube.