

Should Homework be abolished?

It is every student's nightmare. If possible, students would like to _____(1) it abolished. However, homework has its benefits and plays an important role in the _____(2)of a student.

Several studies _____(3) that homework, in fact, does improve the student's performance in school. When a student consistently works on his homework, he will be able to improve his _____(4).

Besides, homework also _____(5) teachers to identify the weaknesses of the students and to teach accordingly. In addition, homework also reinforces what _____(6) for the day. Students _____(7) a deeper understanding what they _____(8). Therefore, it is incredulous to suggest that homework should be abolished as students greatly benefit from homework.

Although many hate the mention of homework, no one _____(9) deny the fact that homework's benefits overshadow its cons. _____(10) it succinctly, homework should not be abolished.

- | | | | |
|---------------------|--------------------|---------------|-----------------------|
| 1. A. Seen | B. seeing | C. have seen | D. see |
| 2. A. success | B. succeed | C. weaknesses | D. understanding |
| 3. A. have proven | B. proof | C. proved | D. was proved |
| 4. A. graded | B. grading | C. grade | D. grades |
| 5. A. helping | B. help | C. helps | D. has helped |
| 6. A. has taught | B. had been taught | C. teaches | D. has been teaching |
| 7. A. has developed | B. developing | C. develop | D. has been developed |
| 8. A. has learned | B. have learned | C. learn | D. have been learned |
| 9. A. might | B. can | C. could | D. may |
| 10. A. Putting | B. Put | C. To put | D. Puts |

